

THE NEWS OF NORFOLK ON PAGES TWO, THREE, FIVE AND SIX.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

All of the lady managers are requested to attend a meeting of the Protestant Hospital Thursday morning at 11 o'clock for election of officers and other important business.

The Nautical Book and News Company's quarters in the lobby of the Monticello Hotel are now much beautified by a number of handsome palms, placed there yesterday. These are among the handsomest in Norfolk and give a very pleasing appearance to this part of the lobby.

Mrs. Louis Selig, of Elizabeth City, N. C., is visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. A. A. Root, of Elizabeth City, who has been in Norfolk for a day or two, left yesterday for Wabeno, North Dakota, on a business trip.

Mr. H. W. B. Glover, traffic manager of the Seaboard Air Line, left yesterday for Hot Springs, Va., to attend a meeting of railway men.

The Old Bay Line has arranged for holiday excursions to Baltimore and return on July 1st, 2d, and 3d.

Miss Spaulding leaves to-night for New York.

Miss Ethel Dale, of Arlington, N. J., daughter of Captain Dale, of the Old Dominion steamer Hampton, is visiting Mrs. L. D. Smith, on York street.

The downy stores were thronged with ladies yesterday purchasing their summer wear.

The Sunday school of the Seventh Street Christian Church of Richmond held its annual picnic at Buckroe Beach yesterday.

To-day is the summer solstice and the longest day in the year.

A total eclipse of the moon will be visible in all portions of the United States Friday.

Large quantities of potatoes, snaps and beans are being shipped to the Northern markets from this section.

The fire department was called out shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the burning of a bed in the rear of M. Raybould's store, No. 67 Church street. The flames were extinguished with a few buckets of water.

Mrs. Robert L. Winston, of Richmond, Va., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary S. Winston, in Willoughby avenue, No. 304.

There will be an excursion from Petersburg to this city and Ocean View on the 29th instant.

Mr. Floyd Hughes, of this city, is in Knoxville, Tenn., attending a convention of the Pi Kappa Alpha College fraternity.

Mr. H. T. Wilson, of Norfolk, spent yesterday in Suffolk on business.

Returns After Many Years.

Mr. Robert Bell, of Topeka, Kansas, an old Norfolkian, is in Norfolk on his first visit for twenty-seven years and his second since the burning of the Norfolk navy yard during the war. Mr. Bell, who is now 66 years of age, has been a world wanderer, but twenty-three years ago he met and married a Michigan lady and settled in Kansas, where last year he had the great misfortune to lose his wife. His son is an employee of the Santa Fe railroad, and Mr. Bell, now comfortably off, was anxious to see again the scenes of his boyhood days. The changes he finds here have made him feel like a stranger in his old home, but many a hand has been stretched out to him in warm greeting, while he mourns the loss of many an old friend.

A Former Resident Here.

Mr. John J. Hickey, formerly of Norfolk, but for the past fifteen years a resident of Philadelphia, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Hickey is connected with the E. P. Burton Lumber Company, of Philadelphia, as their traveling representative. He leaves this morning for Charleston, S. C., to look after the company's large lumber interest in that city.

A Complaint.

Editor Virginian-Pilot: Please allow me space in your valuable paper to call attention to the Lambert's Point line of the Norfolk Street Railway Company. Your paper of to-day notes the opening of a "popular resort, Riverside Park," where last evening about 300 colored people attended. The people of this place have no way of getting to and from Norfolk except by this line. Last night three extra cars were needed to handle this crowd. Every car was packed to its utmost capacity, and the conduct of those in the cars was disgraceful, making it unfit for respectable people to travel in those cars. City people have no idea what the decent, respectable people of Lambert Point have to put up with on this line. The morning and evening cars are crowded with colored workmen from the coal piers going to and from their work; their clothes full of coal dirt with which the car seats are begrimed, making it totally unfit for anyone, especially a lady, to travel in without ruining their clothes. Cars should be provided for these workmen, as it is impossible by the nature of their work for them to be any cleaner than they are. I would suggest that on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, especially, cars should be provided for Riverside Park and marked the same, and by white people they will be respected and shunned as such.

Dangerous Street Obstruction.

Norfolk, Va., June 21, 1899.

Editor Virginian-Pilot:

Growl No. 1.—The contractors for the sewer work in the Richmond Ward have left a quantity of Belgian blocks and soft on Lovitt avenue where it intersects with only a single wagon track through the pile, and fail to place lights on it at night, so that when the residents come in from their afternoon drives they are liable to meet with accidents, and the city to a lawsuit for damages.

Is there any way that the eastern end of Lovitt avenue can be placed on the map of the ward so that the Local Board of Improvement may know that it has not yet dropped overboard, and that it needs some little attention at times? Yours truly, CITIZENS.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

BRIEF REVIEW OF CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, D. C., June 20.—The weekly crop bulletin of the Weather Bureau, issued to-day, says:

"While heavy rains have delayed cultivation and caused damage to crops in portions of the Mississippi and Missouri Valleys, and drought continues over portions of New England and the Middle Atlantic States, Tennessee and the central and southern Rocky Mountain region, the week as a whole has been very favorable to agricultural interests. The telegraphic summary of climate and crop conditions in Cuba, received from Havana, on the 19th, indicates the general prevalence of drought, although local rains occurred over limited areas. The Cuban planters have sown some cane, but are waiting for general rains, which are much needed, especially in Santa Clara province.

"Corn has made good progress in all districts, although in portions of the Missouri and Upper Mississippi Valleys, excessive moisture has retarded cultivation. A part of the crop has received its final cultivation as far north as Missouri and Southern Illinois. "Winter wheat harvest has continued under generally favorable conditions, being in progress as far north as central Illinois, although interrupted by rains in portions of the Central Mississippi and lower Ohio Valleys. While the yields are light they are better than were expected in some sections, and the quality is generally excellent. Grain in shock has sustained injury in portions of Texas.

"Oat harvest is practically completed in the Southern States. In the central valleys the condition of the crop is generally improved.

"Reports from nearly all sections of the cotton belt indicate a general improvement in the condition of cotton, the least favorable coming from Eastern Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma, where the crop is grassy, and Georgia, where caterpillars are causing injury. In the central portion of the cotton belt, where the stands have been unsatisfactory, seed long since planted has germinated and is coming up to improved stands.

"Worms in the Carolinas and grasshoppers in Kentucky and Tennessee are causing injury to the tobacco crop, and the acreage in the last named State has been reduced from this cause and dry weather. In other tobacco States the outlook is promising. Some has been cut in Florida.

"Haying has continued with light yields in the Middle Atlantic States and portions of Michigan and Central Illinois. In New England, owing to the continued drought, the hay crop is almost a failure, but in the States of the Central Valleys the crop is generally satisfactory."
